

Album Title Index

(updated December 26, 2011)

(Wolf Schmalzer)

Explanatory Information

<1> Articles (The, A, Les, Die, Il) and first names at the beginning of an album title are not considered in the alphabetical order and listed in brackets, except they are an essential part of the album title (for example: Thelonious Himself).

Numbers in titles are listed after letters.

“[+1]”, “[+2]” (indicating more tracks than on the original) are not treated as part of the title

<2> Album titles beginning with a number or a Roman numeral are listed after “Z”.

“&” is listed like “and”.

<3> The list includes all mentioned album titles in The Reference, with Coltrane’s participation or not, also album titles mentioned in the “typos and small corrections” and “issues/reissues” lists for the web site (marked as: “<see typos ...>” or “<see “issues/reissues”>”). These entries and according page numbers are in bold types. There are bold notes “<for research>”, too, for releases that need a further check - these will be replaced in a future update.

<4> Page numbers through 366 refer to the Chronology, page numbers 367 and higher refer to the Discography or Appendices.

<5> Many albums are listed twice or more times, under titles and different “subtitles”; an example:
CD Rhino R2-71255 “The John Coltrane Anthology: The Last Giant” is listed under “C”:
(The John) Coltrane Anthology: The Last Giant
and under “L”:
(The) Last Giant: The John Coltrane Anthology

<6> In a few cases reissues with a different title than the original are only listed for the first session they appear in the discography, but not for further sessions - so in these cases the page numbers do not show all mentions of this special issue.

<7> The original issues are listed to differentiate issues of the same title.

Labels that are written out in full in the Reference (Prestige, Columbia, Blue Note, Atlantic, Impulse! ...) are abbreviated here (Prst, Col, BN, Atl, Imp ...)
